Community Support Worker (Permanent FT, 32.5 h/week) — Richmond, BC

Working in one of our four Adult Day Programs (LIFE), this role supports individuals with developmental disabilities to experience improved quality of life, social inclusion, and achieve individual goals.

YOUR IMPACT:

- Provide direct staff support for individuals with developmental disabilities, including people with complex and/or challenging behaviour or support needs.
- Establish respectful relationships with individuals which promote their dignity and well-being.
- Support individuals to achieve goals based on their own choice, beliefs and desires.
- Encourage individuals to build connections; to live self-determined lives in the community surrounded by friends and family.

YOUR CAPABILITIES:

- Relevant post-secondary education in related field and at least six months experience supporting people with developmental disabilities in a similar environment.
- Current CPR and First Aid Certification.
- Clear, current Criminal Records Check.
- Valid BC Driver's License, Class 4 Preferred.
- Demonstrated commitment to diversity and inclusion.
- Effective interpersonal skills with the ability to interact at all levels of an organization.
- Reliable problem solving, critical thinking and communication skills.

Richmond Society for Community Living (RSCL) offers a continuum of care throughout the lifespan of an individual with a disability. This includes early intervention supports for infants and children, child and youth care, adult day and residential services, employment options and more.

Whether you are brand new or a veteran in the community living field, we've got a spot for you! Our extensive professional development will allow you to make a meaningful impact right away. We are looking for people who share our passion to create a community where everyone belongs that is rooted in our values of trust, openness, fairness, respect, responsiveness and continuous learning.
