

Richmond
Society for Community Living

Join our team and discover the possibilities!

Spark your passion and discover your potential with Richmond Society for Community Living (RSCL). Join a team that truly cares about what matters to you. Be empowered, challenged and supported to ignite change!

Our roots run deep in the Richmond community with nearly 40 years of program delivery and almost 300 employees. We live and breathe inclusion with a strong belief in the importance of grassroots advocacy, deep connections and kindness. We treat our employees with the same care as those that we support. In addition to creating rewarding relationships, you can expect respect, flexibility, significant professional development, comprehensive compensation and career growth with us.

Independent Living Consultant (Full-Time, Tuesday - Saturday) – Richmond, BC

As a key member of our Independent Living Team you will provide services to individuals to live in their own community, with needed supports to ensure long term success. The services are based on the specific needs of each of the individuals supported and you will work to create a clear and strong natural support system.

YOUR IMPACT:

- Support individuals, living independently or striving to live independently, with the tasks of daily living
- Support individuals to plan activities that meaningfully engage and expand their social networks, community connections, and experiences
- Provide targeted and meaningful supports that enrich each individual's chosen lifestyle, with the goal of fading out if and as appropriate
- Support independent decision making that is safe and respects dignity of risk
- Work independently and as part of team that values communication, integrity, diversity, and self-advocacy

YOUR CAPABILITIES:

- Relevant post-secondary education in related field and at least one year's experience supporting people with developmental disabilities in a similar environment.
- In-depth knowledge of community based supported living programs for persons with developmental disabilities,
- Advanced computer skills with Microsoft Programs (Word, Excel, etc.) and preferably experience with Sharevision;
- Current CPR and First Aid Certification and Clear Criminal Records Check
- Valid BC Driver's License and access to a vehicle.
- Reliable problem solving, critical thinking and communication skills.

Richmond Society for Community Living (RSCL) offers a continuum of care throughout the lifespan of an individual with a disability. This includes early intervention supports for infants and children, child and youth care, adult day and residential services, employment options and more.

Whether you are brand new or a veteran in the community living field, we've got a spot for you! Our extensive professional development will allow you to make a meaningful impact right away. We are looking for people who share our passion to create a community where everyone belongs that is rooted in our values of trust, openness, fairness, respect, responsiveness and continuous learning.

Apply Now